Hello, there. My name is Angie, and I've got quite the sad tale (not tail; my tail is fine, thank you for asking) to tell. You see, I am a very attractive, middle-aged Maine Coon mix who has spent my life as the loving companion to an owner who recently passed away. To add to my sadness in losing my best friend, my owner's daughter wants to have me put to sleep if I am unable to find another home. It's like the tragic part of a fairy tale. I'm hoping for my happy ending, though: a home (even a temporary one would help) where I can again show my love and devoted companionship. I am 10 to 12 years of age, which is middle-aged in kitty life spans, and in Southern California. If you would like more information about me, please contact Kerri at the email listed as soon as possible. Thank you!
