Hello! My name is Biscuit. If you're like me, the word biscuit conjures up thoughts of warm deliciousness right out of the oven. Well, I'm not coming out of any ovens, but I am sure to warm your heart right away. I'm a young girl of about a year to a year and a half and was left outside a dumpster as I was about to give birth. Imagine the indignity! Luckily, a nice person rescued me, and now it's time for me to find my forever home. I've got gorgeous Russian Blue coloring on my silky soft fur and am an enthusiastic little girl (spunky, even!). I have a playful personality and love to interact with people. I would probably do best as an only cat but might be okay with a mellow dog or a more assertive kitty. Because I have become used to time outside, it would also be great if I could find a safe indoor-outdoor situation (in other words, a safe backyard not near busy streets). I will be sure to greet you at the door when you come home. I enjoy getting head rubs and will even return the favor. When I'm happy I'll let you know by rolling over onto my back and soaking up all the good feelings. I'm a fun-loving gal who's looking forward to meeting my new family!
