Hi everybody! My name is Xander. Fans of Buffy the Vampire Slayer might remember Xander as Buffy's great, down-to-earth buddy. I'm a great buddy myself. I've been described as handsome, lovable, and sturdy -- pretty much everything you could want in a cat. People even say it's impossible to not want to pet me the moment you meet me. I'm very affectionate and eat up pretty much any attention that's given to me, so I guess that's true. I've also been told I'm like a dog in a cat's body -- I love to be petted and will give you adorable little head butts to remind you to continue. I'm a young boy at two years of age and have handsome brown tabby markings. I'm a big boy, which just means there's more of me to love. I'm not fond of other kitties so would do best as an only cat, but I would probably be fine with a cat-friendly dog and cat-familiar kids over the age of seven. I have been neutered, microchipped, vaccinated, and am FeLV/FIV negative.
